

The Homesick Biography

The Homesick are from Dokkum. Dokkum is a Dutch fortified town in the municipality of Dongeradeel in the province of Friesland, Holland. It has 12,635 inhabitants. Three of these inhabitants are in cultnoise, dreampunk en psych-pop formation The Homesick. Two of these three are also part of avant-garde space-wizards Yuko Yuko. The Homesick ate some of the psychedelic fruits of the Ariel Pink-orchard and occasionally record in their dad's garage.

The youngster debuted in 2014 on Subroutine Records with their powerful EP Twst Yr Wrsts. Incendiary Magazine called it "a brilliant pop release, driven by boredom, daydreams, living in a cut n paste Dutch town, and enlivened by a sort of home-brewed sound that is inspiringly, bullishly, tinny and processed." Last year The Homesick played over 80 shows in their homeland including highly rated festivals like Incubate and Le Guess Who?. Like wild bizons on the loose, they stormed all over the country. Now it's time to break the borders and hit Europe.